

post business

New GM at Hotel Preston

By Geert De Lombaerde Posted on February 11, 2009 at 11:36 pm

The Briley Parkway hotel has hired Steven Hoida to run the funky joint.

“Steven has a proven track record in the hospitality industry,” said Howard Jacobs, President & Chief Operating Officer for Provenance Hotels, the parent company of Hotel Preston. “His ability to motivate team members and enhance the guest experience will continue to build upon the Hotel Preston’s solid reputation in Nashville.

Hoida previously served as General Manager for several management companies including Gaylord Entertainment’s organization in Nashville, Tenn. He has also managed a myriad of properties throughout the South and Midwest, while increasing revenue and improving customer satisfaction.